Welcome to the online application for The Robert H. N. Ho Family Foundation Program in Buddhist Studies - Postdoctoral Fellowships.

The Robert H. N. Ho Family Foundation Postdoctoral Fellowship Program in Buddhist Studies provides two years of funding to recent recipients of the PhD for residence at a university for the purpose of revising the dissertation into a publishable manuscript or for beginning the first new project after completion of the PhD degree. The teaching of one course per year is encouraged. Priority is given to residence at a university providing a collegial atmosphere and working conditions enabling the postdoctoral Fellow's entry into an academic career in Buddhist studies.

The fellowship period must begin between July 1, 2017, and September 30, 2018, and must last for two consecutive academic years, during which a Fellow must devote full time to the project. The annual stipend is $55,000. In addition, if required, a relocation allowance of $5,000 will be provided at the beginning and at the end of the fellowship tenure. No university overhead is permitted.

All topics, periods, and approaches in Buddhist studies are welcome. This is a global competition. There are no restrictions as to the location of the university that has granted the degree or that is designated to host a Fellow, or to the citizenship of the applicant. No other employment is permitted during the fellowship tenure. This fellowship cannot be held concurrently with any other fellowship or grant.

Eligibility

- Applicants must have the PhD officially conferred by an accredited, degree-granting university no earlier than January 1, 2013. The PhD degree must be completed by April 15, 2017 (including defense/deposit and revisions) and conferred by May 31, 2017. (If the date of completion or conferral is after the application deadline, the application must include an institutional statement attesting that all requirements for the PhD will be fulfilled by the dates specified.) A successful applicant, before being named a Fellow, must submit proof that the PhD was completed by April 15, 2017 and conferred by May 31, 2017 (this must come from a university official).
- A scholarly product must be proposed, such as a book or digital resource, to be written in any language. Collections of materials and databases are not eligible.
- The application must be written in English by the applicant.
- There are no restrictions as to residence or citizenship of applicants.
- The fellowship-in-residence might be proposed at any accredited university except at the institution granting the applicant's PhD or the institution of current employment. The proposed host university must submit via the online reference system a letter confirming willingness to host the applicant for a two-year postdoctoral fellowship-in-residence.

Applications will be evaluated on the basis of

- Intrinsic significance of the topic and its potential contribution to Buddhist studies

- Coherence and cogency of presentation
- Feasibility of the plan of work
- Record of the applicant's previous accomplishments
- Compatibility of the applicant with the proposed university (The application must include a sample course outline.)

1. You may begin completing the application at any section.
2. What you type into the form is exactly what will be seen by our reviewers. Therefore, please fill out the form carefully, paying attention to spelling, punctuation, grammar, and case. (For instance, do not use all caps.)
3. Text boxes will hold only a limited amount of text. Where longer answers are permitted, the number of available characters will normally be indicated. We suggest that you type rather than paste your response. If you paste your response, be sure your character count does not exceed the limit: excess text may appear on the screen but will not print and will not be visible to reviewers. Examine your print application to be sure your response is complete.
4. Dates should always be entered in the format mm/yyyy or mm/dd/yyyy where indicated. Where an entry continues into the present, please simply leave the ending date blank (mm/yyyy - [blank]).
5. Begin typing all answers at the extreme left hand side of the response area or box; do not leave a space or indent at the beginning of your answer.
6. In all dollar amount fields, use only digits. Please do not use the dollar sign or commas. Please list all amounts (salary, awards, budget requests) in US Dollars. Use the exchange rate at the time of the application.

	PLEASE NOTE: You MUST ENTER YOUR REFEREES and YOUR HOST providing the Letter of Support on the Reference Letters page BEFORE they can log in to use the online references system. Please do not ask them to access the system until you have done this. Once you have entered the information and clicked the "send email" button, an email will be automatically generated with appropriate instructions to the referee and to your proposed host. 1. Three letters of reference are required. Referees should be scholars knowledgeable about your professional and/or academic experience, expert in the subject matter, and able to judge your work objectively. At least one of the referees should be from outside of your home institution. These reference reports are confidential, for the use of review and selection panels only, and will not be made available to the applicant. (We do not accept letters from dossier services such as Interfolio.) 2. A Letter of Support from the university proposed as host for the two-year residence is required. The letter of support should include the fellowship period, resources offered, and rationale for hosting the postdoctoral fellow. Letters of reference and the letter of support must be submitted online. It is your responsibility to convey information about your proposal to your referees and to your host. After your referees and your host have agreed to write on your behalf: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Tell your referees and your host to expect an email from ACLS.• Make absolutely certain you have the correct email address for each referee and for your host.• Enter each referee's and the host's name and email address by clicking on the "Add Referee" link at the bottom of this page. Please capitalize the name properly.• Once you have entered the information and clicked the "send email" button, an email will be automatically generated with appropriate instructions to the referee and to your host.• It is not necessary to enter all referees at the same time. You can return to this screen at any time to enter referees or your host. No more than three letters of reference and one letter of support will be accepted. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Enter only three referees and one host. It is possible to enter additional referees or another host, but you should do this only if you learn that a referee or your host is unable to complete the promised letter.• The first three reference letters and the first letter of support submitted will be the letters on file in support of your application. Once three reference letters and one letter from your host have been submitted, another referee attempting to submit a letter for you will be prevented from doing so. Be careful not to put anyone in this situation. If you learn that your referee or your host did not receive an email with instructions, enter the information again using the "Add Referee" link below to have the email sent again.

(You will not be able to enter the information again, however, if the referee has begun your letter.)

For your information, the online reference process requests referees to comment on the applicant as a scholar and professional and on the specific proposal to ACLS. Referees are asked to evaluate the scholar's ability to conduct and complete the project proposed, as well as the importance of this project within the general and specific field(s) to which it relates.

The letter of support asks for the period, resources offered, and rationale for hosting the postdoctoral fellow.

Institutional Statement (required only for applicants whose PhD degree will be completed/conferred after the application deadline). The provided form asks the institutional representative (the applicant's department chair, dean, or another appropriate institutional representative) to confirm that the applicant will have completed all requirements for the PhD, including defense and revisions, by April 15, 2017, and that the PhD degree will be conferred by May 31, 2017.

Letters of reference, the support letter, and the institutional statement are due by November 23, 2016. It is your responsibility to check online to see whether letters have been submitted.

Your application will be considered incomplete if your proposed host university does not submit a letter of support by the deadline.

The system will continue to accept reference letters and the institutional statement after the deadline and will add them to your application at the earliest possible time, though we cannot guarantee that they will accompany your application through our entire review process.

You might wish to print this page so that you have this information after the application deadline. This page will not be included as part of your view/print application.

The course outline(s) of course(s) proposed, must be uploaded as a separate document. 1a) APPLICATION ESSAY The application essay will be the basis of the evaluation of the project. It must include all of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• a full statement addressing the relevance of the project to the broader issues in your discipline as well as to the field of Buddhist studies• the intended contribution of the writing or research to existing literature in your discipline• a description of the results expected• a rationale for the length of time and residence that are being requested. It is important to specify the identity and location of sources at archives, libraries, or geographical sites and Buddhist studies colleagues relevant to your project. Useful Guidelines The application essay should address all six points. The applicant might find it useful to label sections with the six headings, but this is not required. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Main Thesis: The principal argument or problem guiding the proposed research and writing.2. Body: The research problem in more detail with a justification of the research focus and approach. What is already known about the problem and what more needs to be known?3. Literature and sources: The proposed topic placed in the context of existing literature and potential new sources. What will be the criteria for determining which sources are relevant? The workplan must specify the desired start and end dates for the fellowship period, and must be able to be accomplished within the two years of the fellowship tenure. The application essay must not exceed 5 double-spaced pages in Times New Roman 11-point font. You can, however, include up to 2 additional pages of images, musical scores, or other similar supporting non-text materials.

1b) BIBLIOGRAPHY

The bibliography should provide an overview of essential references for your project, and should balance the various sorts of key materials being used.

The bibliography must not exceed 2 pages in Times New Roman 11-point font, and should be double-spaced between entries.

1c) APPLICANT'S STATEMENT

The applicant's statement should describe the intellectual trajectory and experiences that brought you to the current stage of academic career and that motivate plans for the future. This statement might be used to provide information about you not conveyed elsewhere.

The applicant's statement should be no more than 1 page, single or double-spaced, in Times New Roman 11-point font.

1d) PUBLICATIONS LIST

Publications resulting from previous research are an important factor in evaluating proposals from applicants. (Applicants who have previously conducted research supported by ACLS fellowships should report all publications resulting from that research.)

The publications list should be no more than 2 pages in Times New Roman 11-point font, and should be double-spaced between entries.

2) COURSE OUTLINE(S) OF COURSE(S) PROPOSED

Please provide a course outline for each course you propose to teach during your two-year residence.

In order to be reviewed, documents must adhere to the specified page limits and formatting.

3) DOCUMENT SPECIFICATIONS:

- Items 1a, 1b, 1c, and 1d must be uploaded as one continuous document. Item 2 should be uploaded as a separate document.
- Margins must be at least one inch on all sides.
- Use Times New Roman 11-point font for all uploaded documents.
- There is a 3 MB limit on the size of your upload. This means that the combined size of the two files uploaded, including any graphics or supplementary materials, cannot exceed 3 MB.
- Your application will be converted to Portable Document Format (.pdf). Keep formatting simple to avoid problems in the converted document.
- If your proposal includes foreign characters, please view it after uploading to be sure these characters convert properly. If not, you might have to convert your document to .pdf and upload again to resolve formatting problems.
- Use the header/footer function to number pages. (Do not type the numbers directly into each page of your document text.) You can number pages consecutively throughout the entire document, or you can number the different sections separately. (Page numbers are most helpful on the proposal, so you can omit them on the other items if you wish.)
- Please adhere to the word-count and page limits listed above. Note: The .pdf conversion process can cause some slight formatting changes. If your converted document exceeds the limit only slightly (but your original document did not), please do not be concerned.

- If you have difficulty with your upload, consult the FAQ/technical support before contacting OFA HELP.

4) INSTRUCTIONS FOR UPLOADING YOUR DOCUMENTS:

Your items should be collated in this order—application essay, bibliography, applicant's statement, and publications list—and submitted as one file.

The Course Outline(s) of course(s) proposed should be uploaded as a separate document

Files will be accepted in the following formats ONLY:

Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx), WordPerfect Version 5. or later (.wpd), Text only (.txt), or Adobe Portable Document Format (.pdf). Your file MUST include the appropriate extension (e.g., ".doc"); if you are on a Mac, you will need to enter the extension as part of the file name.

The buttons below will allow you to upload your documents. You will be able to browse your computer system to select the file to be uploaded. When you have completed the upload, your file name should appear under "FILE UPLOAD STATUS" below as a blue link. You can confirm that the file has uploaded successfully by clicking on the blue link and viewing your file. Sometimes the process takes a little time: if your file name does not appear as a blue link, refresh the screen using the refresh button in your browser tool bar, or simply leave this screen and come back to it.

As long as your application is still "In Process," you can upload revised versions of your documents by simply repeating the upload process and selecting the new/revised version. (This can have the same file name or a new file name.) When you click on "Upload Document" the revised version will be recorded and the old version erased.

After uploading, please check your files to be sure they have uploaded successfully.
