Account Information
Log Off	Welcome to the online application for The Robert H. N. Ho Family Foundation Program in Buddhist Studies - Research Fellowships. The Robert H. N. Ho Family Foundation Research Fellowships in Buddhist Studies offer support for research and writing in Buddhist studies for scholars who hold a PhD degree, with no restrictions on time from the PhD. These fellowships provide scholars time free from teaching and other responsibilities to devote full-time to research and writing on the project proposed. The fellowship period can last up to nine months, during which time no teaching, commissioned research on other topics, or administrative duties are allowed. The fellowship can be separated into two periods, each of which must be a minimum of three months. If the entire duration is less than a total of nine months (minimum of six months), the stipend will be prorated. The maximum amount awarded is $70,000. There are no restrictions as to the location of the work conducted. Applicants must identify a significant scholarly product (monograph, series of journal articles, etc.) that will result from the fellowship. They will be asked for a final report at the end of the fellowship tenure describing progress made, and will be asked to report on the products resulting from it when they are published. By accepting a stipend, the Fellow stipulates that she/he has been officially released from teaching, commissioned research, or other employment during the entire fellowship period. A Research Fellowship might be held concurrently with other fellowships and grants and any sabbatical pay, but the total received cannot exceed 125% of the Fellow's academic annual salary. There is no additional financial support for dependents. Tenure of the fellowship might begin no earlier than July 1, 2019, and must conclude by June 30, 2021. All topics, periods, and approaches in Buddhist studies are welcome. This is a global competition. There are no restrictions as to the location of the university that has granted the degree or the university of current employment, or to the citizenship of the applicant. Eligibility <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Applicants must have a PhD degree conferred by an accredited university. (An established scholar who can demonstrate the equivalent of the PhD in publications and professional experience might also qualify.)</li> <li>• The PhD degree must be completed by November 14, 2018 (including defense and revisions) and be conferred by May 31, 2019. (If the date of conferral is after the application deadline, the application must include an institutional statement attesting that all requirements for the PhD have been fulfilled. Successful applicants will be asked to submit proof of conferral before being named Fellows.)</li> <li>• A scholarly product must be proposed, to be written in any language.</li> <li>• The application must be written in English by the applicant.</li> <li>• There are no restrictions as to the location of work proposed, or the citizenship/residence of applicants.</li> </ul> Selection Criteria

Applications will be evaluated on the basis of

- Significance of the topic and its potential contribution to Buddhist studies
- Coherence and cogency of presentation
- Feasibility of the plan of work
- Record of the applicant's previous accomplishments

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE APPLICANT

Before beginning your application, you will be asked question(s) designed to determine preliminary eligibility for this program. Once you have answered the basic eligibility question(s), please read all instructions, including those in the REFERENCE LETTERS and PROPOSAL UPLOAD sections, before beginning to fill out the application form. Completed applications must be submitted online no later than 9 pm, Eastern Standard Time, November 14, 2018. Notifications will be sent by May 2019.

The application consists of the following elements:

- Completed application form submitted through the Online Fellowship Application system
- Application essay (no more than 5 double-spaced pages in Times New Roman 11-point font)
- Up to 2 additional pages of images, musical scores, or other similar supporting non-text materials [Optional]
- Project bibliography (no more than 2 pages, double-spaced between entries)
- Applicant's statement (no more than 1 page, single or double-spaced, in Times New Roman 11-point font) describing the intellectual trajectory and experiences that brought the applicant to the current stage of academic career and that motivate plans for the future. This statement might be used to provide information about the candidate not conveyed elsewhere in this application.
- List of the applicant's publications (no more than 2 pages, double-spaced between entries)
- Three letters of reference
- Institutional statement (required only for applicants whose PhD will be conferred after the application deadline). A letter from the applicant's institution (preferably from the applicant's chair or dean) attesting that the applicant will have completed all requirements for the PhD, including defense and revisions, by November 14, 2018, and that the PhD degree will be conferred by May 31, 2019. No award will be made without confirmation of receipt of the PhD degree.

INSTRUCTIONS

You may make as many visits to your application as you wish, and revise any information in your application until it has been submitted. In order to be considered, your application must be complete and in SUBMITTED status at 9 pm, EASTERN STANDARD TIME, November 14, 2018. You must complete the REFERENCE LETTERS section by this time; your letter writers will have until November 21, 2018, to submit their letters.

This application consists of three parts: the application form itself, the uploaded documents (see PROPOSAL UPLOAD), and reference letters (see REFERENCE LETTERS).

BEFORE BEGINNING the application form, please read the Instructions regarding the PROPOSAL UPLOAD and the REFERENCE LETTERS, as well as the following technical instructions.

A. How to SAVE and SUBMIT your data.

1. Do not use your browser's "BACK" or "FORWARD" buttons for navigation. Instead, use the navigation links and/or arrows provided on each application screen.
2. You must SAVE each time you leave a screen. If you do not click on SAVE, anything entered since you last hit SAVE on that screen will be lost. (Any work from a previous session will be retained, but any new entries will be lost.) The SAVE button is on the bottom of your screen.
3. You may work on your application in as many sessions as you wish, and the status of your application will be IN PROCESS until you submit it. Once you are satisfied that your application is complete, you must go to the SUBMIT APPLICATION screen and select SUBMIT APPLICATION. Once your application has been SUBMITTED, it cannot revert to IN PROCESS status.
4. When you have completed your application, pause to check it one last time. We strongly suggest that you print and read your application before submitting it, so that you can be sure there are no further revisions you wish to make. Your print copy should include your uploaded document.
5. Your application status bar must show SUBMITTED at 9 pm, Eastern Standard Time, November 14, 2018, in order for it to be considered. ACLS will take no responsibility for applications that are not in SUBMITTED status at the deadline. Once your application has been SUBMITTED, even if it was submitted before the final deadline, no changes will be permitted.
6. We strongly urge you to print out and save a copy of the final version of your SUBMITTED application. Your print copy should include your uploaded document. You can print your application until January 15, 2019.

B. How to enter data.

1. You may begin completing the application at any section.
2. What you type into the form is exactly what will be seen by our reviewers.

Therefore, please fill out the form carefully, paying attention to spelling, punctuation, grammar, and case. (For instance, do not use all caps.)

3. Text boxes will hold only a limited amount of text. Where longer answers are permitted, the number of available characters will normally be indicated. We suggest that you type rather than paste your response. If you paste your response, be sure your character count does not exceed the limit: excess text may appear on the screen but will not print and will not be visible to reviewers. Examine your print application to be sure your response is complete.
4. Dates should always be entered in the format mm/yyyy or mm/dd/yyyy where indicated. Where an entry continues into the present, please simply leave the ending date blank (mm/yyyy - [blank]).
5. Begin typing all answers at the extreme left hand side of the response area or box; do not leave a space or indent at the beginning of your answer.
6. In all dollar amount fields, use only digits. Please do not use the dollar sign or commas. Please list all amounts (salary, awards, budget requests) in US Dollars. Use the exchange rate at the time of the application.

C. How to get help.

1. If you have questions about the application process, please consult FAQ. If your question is not answered there, click on the "OFA HELP" link that appears on the blue bar at the top of each screen to submit your query.
2. If you are unable to use the "OFA HELP" link that appears on the blue bar at the top of each screen (after this one), contact ofahelp@acsls.org with questions. (Please use the "OFA HELP" link instead if possible.)

Good luck with your application!

	PLEASE NOTE: You MUST ENTER YOUR REFEREES on the Reference Letters page BEFORE they can log in to use the online references system. Please do not ask them to access the system until you have done this. Once you have entered the information and clicked the "send email" button, an email will be automatically generated with appropriate instructions to the referee and to your proposed host. Three letters of reference are required. Referees should be scholars knowledgeable about your professional and/or academic experience, expert in the subject matter, and able to judge your work objectively. At least one of the referees should be from outside of your home institution. These reference reports are confidential, for the use of review and selection panels only, and will not be made available to the applicant. (We do not accept letters from dossier services such as Interfolio.) Letters of reference must be submitted online. It is your responsibility to convey information about your proposal to your referees. After your referees have agreed to write on your behalf: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Tell your referees to expect an email from ACLS.</li> <li>• Make absolutely certain you have the correct email address for each referee.</li> <li>• Enter each referee's name and email address by clicking on the "Add Referee" link at the bottom of this page. Please capitalize the name properly.</li> <li>• Once you have entered the information and clicked the "send email" button, an email will be automatically generated with appropriate instructions to the referee.</li> <li>• It is not necessary to enter all referees at the same time. You can return to this screen at any time to enter referees.</li> </ul> No more than three letters of reference will be accepted. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Enter only three referees. It is possible to enter additional referees, but you should do this only if you learn that a referee is unable to complete the promised letter.</li> <li>• The first three reference letters submitted will be the letters on file in support of your application. Once three reference letters have been submitted, another referee attempting to submit a letter for you will be prevented from doing so. Be careful not to put anyone in this situation.</li> </ul> If you learn that your referee did not receive an email with instructions, enter the information again using the "Add Referee" link below to have the email sent again. (You will not be able to enter the information again, however, if the referee has begun your letter.) For your information, the online reference process requests referees to comment on the applicant as a scholar and professional and on the specific proposal to ACLS. Referees are asked to evaluate the scholar's ability to conduct and complete the project proposed, as well as the importance of this project within the general and specific field(s) to which it relates. Institutional Statement (required only for applicants whose PhD degree will be conferred after the application deadline). The provided form asks the institutional representative (the applicant's department chair, dean, or another appropriate institutional representative) to confirm that the applicant will have completed all requirements for the PhD, including defense and revisions, by November 14, 2018 and that the PhD degree will be conferred by May 31, 2019.

Letters of reference and the institutional statement are due by November 21, 2018. It is your responsibility to check online to see whether letters have been submitted.

The system will continue to accept reference letters and the institutional statement after the deadline and will add them to your application at the earliest possible time, though we cannot guarantee that they will accompany your application through our entire review process.

You might wish to print this page so that you have this information after the application deadline. This page will not be included as part of your view/print application.

	To complete your application package, in addition to the application form, you must upload the following items: an application essay, a bibliography, an applicant's statement, and a publications list. The application essay, bibliography, applicant's statement, and publications list must be uploaded as one continuous file. 1. a) APPLICATION ESSAY The application essay will be the basis of the evaluation of the project. It must include all of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• a full statement addressing the relevance of the project to the broader issues in your discipline as well as to the field of Buddhist studies</li> <li>• the intended contribution of the writing or research to existing literature in your discipline</li> <li>• a description of the results expected</li> <li>• a rationale for the length of time requested. It is important to specify the identity and location of sources at archives, libraries, or geographical sites and Buddhist studies colleagues relevant to your project.</li> </ul> Useful Guidelines The application essay should address all six points. The applicant might find it useful to label sections with the six headings, but this is not required. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Main Thesis: The principal argument or problem guiding the proposed research and writing.</li> <li>2. Body: The research problem in more detail with a justification of the research focus and approach. What is already known about the problem and what more needs to be known?</li> <li>3. Literature and sources: The proposed topic placed in the context of existing literature and potential new sources. What will be the criteria for determining which sources are relevant? How will the project extend, modify, or challenge existing scholarship?</li> <li>4. Methods: A detailed description of the methods to be used. How will they be deployed to address the main thesis or argument of the project?</li> <li>5. Significance: An explanation of the importance of the proposed work to central issues in Buddhist studies, to other disciplines, and to humanities scholarship in general.</li> <li>6. Workplan: The concluding section of the essay should present a plan of work with a timeline for the research and/or writing during the fellowship period. How much has the applicant already accomplished on the project and how much remains to be done? What steps are anticipated during the fellowship period? What is the expected result? The workplan must specify the desired start and end dates for the fellowship period, and must be able to be accomplished within the fellowship tenure.</li> </ol> The application essay must not exceed 5 double-spaced pages in Times New Roman 11-point font. You can, however, include up to 2 additional pages of images, musical scores, or other similar supporting non-text materials. b) BIBLIOGRAPHY

The bibliography should provide an overview of essential references for your project, and should balance the various sorts of key materials being used.

The bibliography must not exceed 2 pages in Times New Roman 11-point font, and should be double-spaced between entries.

c) APPLICANT'S STATEMENT

The applicant's statement should describe the intellectual trajectory and experiences that brought you to the current stage of academic career and that motivate plans for the future. This statement might be used to provide information about you not conveyed elsewhere in this application.

The applicant's statement should be no more than 1 page, single or double-spaced, in Times New Roman 11-point font.

d) PUBLICATIONS LIST

Publications resulting from previous research are an important factor in evaluating proposals from applicants. (Applicants who have previously conducted research supported by ACLS fellowships should report all publications resulting from that research.)

The publications list should be no more than 2 pages in Times New Roman 11-point font, and should be double-spaced between entries.

In order to be reviewed, documents must adhere to the specified page limits and formatting.

2) DOCUMENT SPECIFICATIONS:

- Items a, b, c, and d must be uploaded as one continuous document.
- Margins must be at least one inch on all sides.
- Use Times New Roman 11-point font for all uploaded documents.
- There is a 3 MB limit on the size of your upload. This means that the combined size of the two files uploaded, including any graphics or supplementary materials, cannot exceed 3 MB.
- Your application will be converted to Portable Document Format (.pdf). Keep formatting simple to avoid problems in the converted document.
- If your proposal includes foreign characters, please view it after uploading to be sure these characters convert properly. If not, you might have to convert your document to .pdf and upload again to resolve formatting problems.
- Use the header/footer function to number pages. (Do not type the numbers directly into each page of your document text.) You can number pages consecutively throughout the entire document, or you can number the different sections separately. (Page numbers are most helpful on the proposal, so you can omit them on the other items if you wish.)
- Please adhere to the word-count and page limits listed above. Note: The .pdf conversion process can cause some slight formatting changes. If your converted document exceeds the limit only slightly (but your original document did not), please do not be concerned.
- If you have difficulty with your upload, consult the FAQ/technical support before contacting OFA HELP.

3) INSTRUCTIONS FOR UPLOADING YOUR DOCUMENTS:

Your items should be collated in this order—application essay, bibliography, applicant's statement, and publications list—and submitted as one file.

Files will be accepted in the following formats ONLY: Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx), WordPerfect Version 5. or later (.wpd), Text only (.txt), or Adobe Portable Document Format (.pdf). Your file MUST include the appropriate extension (e.g., ".doc"); if you are on a Mac, you will need to enter the extension as part of the file name.

The button below will allow you to upload your documents. You will be able to browse your computer system to select the file to be uploaded. When you have completed the upload, your file name should appear under "FILE UPLOAD STATUS" below as a blue link. You can confirm that the file has uploaded successfully by clicking on the blue link and viewing your file. Sometimes the process takes a little time: if your file name does not appear as a blue link, refresh the screen using the refresh button in your browser tool bar, or simply leave this screen and come back to it.

As long as your application is still "In Process," you can upload revised versions of your documents by simply repeating the upload process and selecting the new/revised version. (This can have the same file name or a new file name.) When you click on "Upload Document" the revised version will be recorded and the old version erased.

After uploading, please check your files to be sure they have uploaded successfully.
