<td>Account Information</td>
<td>ACLS invites applications for Frederick Burkhardt Residential Fellowships for Recently Tenured Scholars, made possible by the generous assistance of The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation. The fellowships are named for the late Frederick Burkhardt, president of ACLS from 1957-1974, whose decades of work on The Correspondence of Charles Darwin constitute a signal example of dedication to a demanding and ambitious scholarly enterprise. These fellowships support ambitious, long-term projects in the humanities and related social sciences. The ultimate goal of the project should be a major piece of scholarly work by the applicant. ACLS does not fund creative work (e.g., novels or films), textbooks, straightforward translation, or pedagogical projects.</td>

<td>The Burkhardt program offers two sets of opportunities for recently tenured humanists. The first set of Burkhardt Fellowships support an academic year (nine months) of residence at any one of 13 participating residential research centers, and are open to faculty at any degree-granting academic institution in the United States. An additional set of Burkhardt Fellowships are designated specifically for liberal arts college faculty, and support an academic year of residence at a wider range of locations including campus humanities centers and university academic departments to be proposed by the applicant. (Liberal arts college faculty may apply for either of the Burkhardt awards, and should select which fellowship opportunity will best serve their project.)</td>

FREDERICK BURKHARDT RESIDENTIAL FELLOWSHIPS

WELCOME TO THE ONLINE APPLICATION FOR BURKHARDT FELLOWSHIPS AT RESIDENTIAL RESEARCH CENTERS.

These Burkhardt Fellowships are intended to support an academic year (nine months) of residence at any one of 13 residential research centers participating in the program. Such an environment, beyond providing free time, encourages exchanges across disciplinary lines that can help to deepen and expand the significance of projects in the humanities and related social sciences. This year's successful applicants may take up the fellowship in 2019-20 or in either of the succeeding two academic years, but candidates must commit themselves firmly to the preferred year and residential center on their completed applications. Candidates must also commit themselves to relocating as needed in order to be in residence for the entire nine-month tenure of the fellowship.

ACLS will award up to 10 Burkhardt Fellowships for residency at these centers in the 2018-19 competition year. Each fellowship carries a stipend of $95,000, plus funds for research costs and related scholarly activities of up to $7,500 and for relocation up to $3,000.

Scholars are welcome to apply both for a Burkhardt Fellowship and for forms of support offered directly by any of the participating centers, as well as for any other ACLS fellowship for which they are eligible. Liberal arts college faculty are eligible for either set of opportunities within the Burkhardt Fellowship program, but may submit one application only and should select the type of residence that best serves their project. Successful applicants who accept a Burkhardt Fellowship will be withdrawn from other ACLS competitions.

Before beginning your application, you will be asked several questions designed to determine preliminary eligibility for this program. Once you have answered these basic eligibility questions, please read all instructions, including those in the REFERENCE LETTERS and PROPOSAL UPLOAD sections, before beginning to fill out the application form.

Completed applications must be submitted online no later than 9 pm, Eastern Daylight Time, September 26, 2018. Notifications will be sent via email by late February 2019. Click for more information.

Eligibility
These Burkhardt Fellowships are open to recently tenured humanists—scholars who will have begun their first tenured contracts by the application deadline but began their first tenured contracts no earlier than the fall 2014 semester or quarter. An applicant must be employed in a tenured position at a degree-granting academic institution in the United States, remaining so for the duration of the fellowship. US citizenship or permanent residency is not required, and previous supported research leaves do not affect eligibility for the Burkhardt Fellowship. This is a residential fellowship; scholars who are unable to commit to a nine-month residence at one of the 13 participating centers should not apply.

Objectives
1. To encourage more adventurous, more wide-ranging, and longer-term patterns of research than are current in the humanities and related social sciences;

2. To link a small number of outstanding scholars and their projects to one of a limited number of residential study centers with an established record of advancing multidisciplinary scholarship;

3. To sustain the scholarly momentum of the emerging intellectual leaders in fields of the humanities and related social sciences.
ACLS invites applications that extend the frame within which research is planned in ways that will encourage conceptualizing and bringing to completion projects of wide scope and high significance. There are many ways in which scholarship may take on such scope and significance, from work that compares historical or literary trends across two or more cultures; that requires command of two or more scholarly disciplines to advance analysis; that explores topics requiring insights from two or more fields of the humanities; or that is poised to take fields of study in new directions. Please look through the projects of past Burkhardt Fellows as examples of the significant variety of such scholarship.

Schedule

Proposals should show evidence of significant preliminary work already completed, and a plan of work, typically in the five-year range, to be carried out. Assurance will be required from the administrative leadership of the scholar's home institution (dean, provost, president, or other appropriate person) that the applicant is an especially promising member of its humanities faculty, and that the institution is prepared to make its own contributions—beyond providing normal fringe benefits during the fellowship year—to assist the scholar in bringing the project to completion. (See below.)

The overall structure of support would thus include:

1. An academic-year’s leave funded by ACLS under the Burkhardt Fellowship program, with a stipend of $95,000 plus other funds for scholarly activities and relocation, and residence (not including lodging costs) at one of the participating residential centers. To accommodate fellows' personal schedules, these centers and libraries have agreed to permit successful applicants to specify one of the succeeding three years for residency and to hold a place for them; applicants will be required to adhere to that schedule.

2. A summer's support (usually estimated at 2/9 salary) and/or equivalent reduction of teaching and administrative duties at some point in the post-fellowship stage, funded by the home institution.

3. Since projects are expected to be long-term, and since these fellowships offer a high level of salary support, work plans should be designed to take maximum advantage of existing leave and/or sabbatical policies at home institutions; that is, these fellowships should be viewed as incremental to institutionally approved leave policies rather than substituting for them. Such institutionally granted research support could be used for the final effort necessary to bring the project to completion.

Participating Residential Research Centers

The participating centers are:

- American Academy in Rome (Rome, Italy)
- American Antiquarian Society (Worcester, MA)
- Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences (Stanford, CA)
- Folger Shakespeare Library (Washington, DC)
- Huntington Library (San Marino, CA)
- Institute for Advanced Study, Central European University (Budapest, Hungary)
- Institute for Advanced Study, Schools of Historical Studies and Social Science (Princeton, NJ)
- John W. Kluge Center at the Library of Congress (Washington, DC)
- National Humanities Center (Research Triangle Park, NC)
- Newberry Library (Chicago, IL)
- Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Study (Cambridge, MA)
- Swedish Collegium for Advanced Study (Uppsala, Sweden)
- Villa I Tatti (Florence, Italy)

Applicants must specify the particular center or research library where they hope to go into residence and the year of the proposed residency in their application materials, and provide a rationale as to why that center or library is best suited to advance the project. (Applicants also must select one alternate site in their application should their first choice be unable to accommodate them.)

There are two exceptions. Applicants who have previously held a Rome Prize may not apply for residency at the American Academy in Rome. Villa I Tatti will accept applications only for residency in 2019-20.

Application Requirements

Applications must include:
Evaluation Criteria

Peer reviewers in this program are asked to evaluate all eligible proposals according to the following criteria:

1. The potential of the project to advance the field of study in which it is proposed and make an original and significant contribution to knowledge.

2. The ambition and scope of the proposed project.

3. The quality of the proposal with regard to its methodology, scope, theoretical framework, and grounding in the relevant scholarly literature.

4. The likelihood that residence at the specified center will increase significantly the applicant's ability to carry the project forward.

5. The feasibility of the project and the likelihood that the applicant will execute the work within the proposed time frame.

6. The scholarly record and career trajectory of the applicant, taking into account relative advantages and constraints on resources for the proposed project and over the course of her or his career.

7. Commitment by the scholar's institution to assist in advancing the project.

INSTRUCTIONS

You may make as many visits to your application as you wish, and revise any information in your application until it has been submitted. In order to be considered, your application must be complete and in SUBMITTED status at 9 pm, EASTERN DAYLIGHT TIME, September 26, 2018. You should complete the REFERENCE LETTERS section as soon as possible since your letter writers will also have until the application deadline (September 26) to submit their letters.

This application consists of three parts: the application form itself, the uploaded documents (see PROPOSAL UPLOAD), and reference letters (see REFERENCE LETTERS).

BEFORE BEGINNING the application form, please read the Instructions regarding the PROPOSAL UPLOAD and the REFERENCE LETTERS as well as the following technical instructions.

A. How to SAVE and SUBMIT your data.

1. Do not use your browser’s “BACK” or “FORWARD” buttons for navigation. Instead, use the navigation links and/or arrows provided on each application screen.

2. You must SAVE EACH TIME you leave a screen. If you do not click on SAVE, anything entered since you last hit SAVE on that screen will be lost. (Any work from a previous session will be retained, but any new entries will be lost.) The SAVE button is on the bottom of your screen.

3. You may work on your application in as many sessions as you wish, and the status of your application will be IN PROCESS until you submit it. Once you are satisfied that your application is complete, you must go to the SUBMIT APPLICATION screen and select SUBMIT APPLICATION. Once your application has been SUBMITTED, it can not revert to IN PROCESS status.

4. When you have completed your application, pause to check it one last time. We strongly suggest that you print and read your application before submitting it, so that you can be sure there are no further revisions you wish to make. Your print copy should include your uploaded document.

5. Your application status bar must show SUBMITTED at 9 pm, Eastern Daylight Time, September 26, 2018 in order for it to be considered. ACLS will take no responsibility for applications that are not in SUBMITTED status at the deadline. Once your application has been SUBMITTED, even if it was submitted before the final deadline, no changes will be permitted.

6. We strongly urge you to print out and save a copy of the final version of your SUBMITTED application. Your print copy should include your uploaded document. You can print your application until January 15, 2019.

B. How to enter data.

1. You may begin completing the application at any section.

2. What you type into the form is exactly what will be seen by our reviewers. Therefore, please fill out the form carefully, paying attention to spelling, punctuation, grammar, and case. (For instance, do not use all caps.)
3. Text boxes will hold only a limited amount of text. Where longer answers are permitted, the number of available characters will normally be indicated. We suggest that you type rather than paste your response. If you paste your response, be sure your character count does not exceed the limit: excess text may appear on the screen but will not print and will not be visible to reviewers. Examine your print application to be sure your response is complete.

4. Dates should always be entered in the format mm/yyyy or mm/dd/yyyy where indicated. Where an entry continues into the present, please simply leave the ending date blank (mm/yyyy - [blank]).

5. Begin typing all answers at the extreme left hand side of the response area or box; do not leave a space or indent at the beginning of your answer.

6. In all dollar amount fields, use only digits. Please do not use the dollar sign or commas.

C. How to get help.

1. If you have questions about the application process, please consult FAQ. If your question is not answered there, click on the "OFA HELP" link that appears on the blue bar at the top of each screen to submit your query.

2. If you are unable to use the "OFA HELP" link that appears on the blue bar at the top of each screen (after this one), contact ofahelp@acls.org with questions. (Please use the "OFA HELP" link instead if possible.)

Good luck with your application!

PLEASE NOTE: You MUST ENTER YOUR REFEREES on the Reference Letters page BEFORE they can log in to use the online references system. Please do not ask them to access the system until you have done this. Once you have entered the information and clicked the "send email" button, an email will be automatically generated with appropriate instructions to the referee.

Three letters of reference and one institutional statement are required.

1. REFERENCE LETTERS. We suggest that you secure as referees scholars competent to judge both the present research proposal and your past scholarship; further, that not more than one referee be affiliated with your own institution. ACLS does not accept reference letters from dossier services, such as Interfolio or university-based services. Why?

For your information, referees are asked to comment on the applicant as a scholar and professional, and on the degree to which the specific proposal to ACLS represents a genuinely ambitious, distinguished, and long-term contribution to humanistic scholarship. They are asked to evaluate the scholar's achievements and ability to conduct and complete the project proposed, as well as the importance of this project within the general and specific field(s) to which it relates.

2. INSTITUTIONAL STATEMENT. In addition to three letters of reference, we require a statement from a senior official of your home institution (dean, provost, president, or other appropriate person) regarding your promise as a member of the humanities faculty and the contributions the institution will make if your application is successful.

The provided form asks the administrative leadership of your institution to affirm that the applicant is an especially promising member of its humanities faculty, and that the institution is prepared: 1) to provide normal fringe benefits during the fellowship year, and 2) to provide a summer's support (usually estimated at 2/9 salary) and/or equivalent reduction of teaching and administrative duties at some point in the post-fellowship stage.

Letters of reference and the institutional statement must be submitted online. It is your responsibility to convey information about your proposal to your referees. After your referees have agreed to write on your behalf:

- Tell your referees to expect an email from ACLS.
- Make absolutely certain you have the correct email address for each referee.
- Enter each referee's name and email address by clicking on the "Add Referee" link at the bottom of this page. Please capitalize the name properly.
- Once you have entered the information and clicked the "send email" button, an email will be automatically generated with appropriate instructions to the referee.
- It is not necessary to enter all referees at the same time. You can return to this screen at any time to enter referees.
- Your referees will not receive an email to begin this process until you have entered the information and clicked the "send email" button.

No more than three letters of reference and one institutional statement will be accepted.

- Enter only the required number of referees. It is possible to enter additional referees, but you should do this only if you learn that a referee is unable to complete the promised letter.
- The first three reference letters and the first institutional statement submitted will be the letters on file in support of your application. Once the maximum number has been submitted, another referee attempting to submit a letter for you will be prevented from doing so. Be careful not to put anyone in this situation.

If you learn that your referee did not receive an email with instructions, enter the information again using the "Add Referee" link below to have the email sent again. (You will not be able to enter the information again, however, if the referee has begun your letter.)

Letters of reference and the institutional statement are due by the application deadline, September 26, 2018. It is your responsibility to check online to see whether letters have been submitted. The system will continue to accept letters after the deadline and will add them to your application at the earliest possible time, though we cannot guarantee that they will accompany your application through our entire review process.

You may wish to print this page so that you have this information after the application deadline. This page will not be included as part of your view/print application.

American Council of Learned Societies
To complete your application package, in addition to the application form, you must upload the following items: 1) a proposal, 2) a bibliography, 3) a publications list. All three items should be collated to upload as one continuous document.

1) PROPOSAL:

In preparing this material, please keep in mind that the selection committee is multi-disciplinary, composed of scholars from a broad range of fields in the humanities who may or may not be specialists in the particular area of the discipline addressed by your proposal.

Content: A concise statement describing your research project is required. The narrative statement should explain your research plan in relation to the objectives of the Burkhardt Fellowship program. Please distinguish your plans for research during the proposed year of residence at a research center from the development of your project in earlier and subsequent years, being as clear as possible about the discrete phases of your research and your writing. Be sure to include in your statement a description of specific work plans, your rationale for the selected residential location, and your assessment of the overall contribution this project will make to the field(s) it engages. Please give your proposal a brief, descriptive title, and label sections of your narrative as appropriate to assist readers.

In addition, if your project is part of a collaborative undertaking, it is essential to explain the relationship between your contribution and that of your collaborator(s).

The proposal must not exceed 10 double-spaced pages in Times New Roman 11-point font.

2) BIBLIOGRAPHY:

The bibliography should provide an overview of the publications you regard as central to advancing your project; you may wish to provide annotation to accompany certain items.

The bibliography must not exceed 3 pages, and should be double-spaced between entries.

3) PUBLICATIONS LIST:

This should be a list of your representative publications and should include titles, dates of publication, names of publishers or journals (indicate which were refereed), and numbers of pages.

Your publications list must not exceed 2 pages, and may be in whatever format you normally keep it.

Documents must adhere to the page limits and formatting requirements to be reviewed.
4) DOCUMENT SPECIFICATIONS:

- All three items must be uploaded as one continuous document.
- Margins must be at least one inch on all sides.
- Use Times New Roman 11-point font for all uploaded documents.
- There is a 3 MB limit on the size of your upload. This means that the total size of the upload, including any graphics or supplementary materials, cannot exceed 3 MB.
- Your application will be converted to Portable Document Format (.pdf). Keep formatting simple to avoid problems in the converted document.
- If your proposal includes foreign characters, please view it after uploading to be sure these characters convert properly. If not, you may have to convert your document to .pdf and upload again to resolve formatting problems.
- Use the header/footer function to number pages. (Do not type the numbers directly into each page of your document text.) You may number pages consecutively throughout the entire document, or you may number the different sections separately. (Page numbers are most helpful on the proposal, so you may omit them on the other items if you wish.)
- If you have difficulty with your upload, consult the FAQ/technical support before contacting OFA HELP.

5) INSTRUCTIONS FOR UPLOADING YOUR DOCUMENTS:

Your items should be collated in this order—proposal, bibliography, publication list—and submitted as one file.

Files will be accepted in the following formats ONLY:
Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx), WordPerfect Version 5. or later (.wpd), Text only (.txt), or Adobe Portable Document Format (.pdf). Your file MUST include the appropriate extension (e.g., ".doc"); if you are on a Mac, you will need to enter the extension as part of the file name.

The button below will allow you to upload your document. You will be able to browse your computer system to select the file to be uploaded. When you have completed the upload, your file name should appear under "FILE UPLOAD STATUS" below as a blue link. You can confirm that the file has uploaded successfully by clicking on the blue link and viewing your file. Sometimes the process takes a little time: if your file name does not appear as a blue link, refresh the screen using the refresh button in your browser tool bar, or simply leave this screen and come back to it.

As long as your application is still "In Process," you can upload revised versions of your document by simply repeating the upload process and selecting the new/revised version. (This may have the same file name or a new file name.) When you click on "Upload File" the revised version will be recorded and the old version erased.

After uploading, please check your file to be sure it has uploaded successfully.

Before submitting your application, make sure you have

- answered all appropriate questions
- completed and saved all screens
- uploaded successfully your proposal and accompanying documents

We suggest that you view and/or print your application one last time before submitting it since no revisions are allowed after submission. Your view/print copy should include your uploaded document. If it does not, click the OFA HELP button above for assistance.

*Please note that, by the application deadline, you must complete the REFERENCE LETTERS section in addition to submitting your application.

An application that is submitted, but is not complete, will not be considered.
