The African Humanities Series is a book-publishing project of the African Humanities Program of the American Council of Learned Societies. The series covers topics in African histories, languages, literatures, and cultures. Submissions are solicited from Fellows of the African Humanities Program (AHP), which is administered by the American Council of Learned Societies and financially supported by the Carnegie Corporation of New York.

The purpose of the AHP is to encourage and enable production of new knowledge by Africans in: Ghana, Nigeria, South Africa, Tanzania, and Uganda.
