Sample Application

What follows is a sample of an application for The Robert H.N. Ho Family Foundation Program in Buddhist Studies Dissertation Fellowship. It is for informational purposes only.

To apply for this fellowship, you must submit your application electronically, using the Online Fellowship Application (OFA) system.
Program Description

The Robert H. N. Ho Family Foundation Dissertation Fellowships in Buddhist Studies provide stipends to PhD candidates for full time preparation of dissertations. The ten-month fellowship period may be used for fieldwork, archival research, analysis of findings, or for writing after research is complete. Applicants should choose one of two types of support and check the appropriate box on the first page of the application form.

- Research Fellowships for fieldwork or archival investigations.
- Writing Fellowships for use after the research is complete, to write the dissertation.

All topics, periods, and approaches in Buddhist Studies are welcome.

The Robert H. N. Ho Family Foundation Program in Buddhist Studies, administered by ACLS, is committed to inclusion, equity, and diversity as integral components of merit that enhance the scholarly enterprise. It is a priority of this program that cohorts of Fellows and grantees be broadly inclusive of different backgrounds, cultures, and any aspects that make one unique. In Buddhist studies we seek balance in regard to citizenship and university affiliation, as well as in languages, topics, Buddhist traditions, and locations of research.

FELLOWSHIP DETAILS

- Stipend: $30,000
- Tenure: 10 consecutive months, initiated by September 30, 2022, devoted full time to the dissertation. No other employment is permitted during the fellowship period.
- Completed applications must be submitted through the ACLS Online Fellowship and Grant Administration (OFA) System (ofa.acls.org) no later than 9 pm Eastern Standard Time, November 15, 2021.

The total award should be used for expenses associated with the fellowship work, not for tuition or other university fees. Home universities are requested to waive fees for Fellows while allowing access to university facilities during the fellowship year. If university policy or regulations prevent the university from following this procedure, the university should be willing to negotiate with ACLS some other mutually acceptable formula that will avoid the necessity for the Fellow to use the fellowship stipend for university fees. This fellowship cannot be held concurrently with any other fellowship or grant.

 Fellowships will be granted based on the potential of the applicant, the quality and scholarly significance of the proposed work, and its importance to the development of the field of Buddhist studies.

SPECIFICATION OF RESEARCH OR WRITING FELLOWSHIPS

Applicants must apply for one of these two categories of support. The application essay should state clearly how much work on the dissertation has already been accomplished and in what specific ways progress would be advanced by a Foundation award. The selection committee will consider the intrinsic intellectual merit of the project, the workplan proposed, and evidence of progress made toward completion.

Applications for research fellowships should identify the research question(s), the sources to be investigated, criteria by which relevant information will be selected, the location of the project in the disciplinary literature, the methodology and approach to the subject matter, and tentative conclusions.
Applications for writing fellowships should state the main thesis or claim, review the sources investigated and secondary literature consulted, and indicate, if possible, an outline of chapters. The proposal should also state what materials have been collected, how research questions might have been answered or modified, and the direction that analysis will take once writing has begun. ACLS selection committees understand the problem posed by timing – often, applications for writing are composed in the midst of fieldwork or archival research, at a time when all relevant materials have not yet been collected and the dissertation’s argument might be still inchoate. Applicants should address this problem directly in the application essay, describing as accurately as possible what they have accomplished as of the application deadline and how they envision their dissertations taking shape during the period of the writing fellowship.

Before beginning your application, you will be asked several questions designed to determine preliminary eligibility for this program. Once you have answered these basic eligibility questions, please read all instructions, including those in the REFERENCE LETTERS and PROPOSAL UPLOAD sections, before beginning to fill out the application form.

ELIGIBILITY

- Pursuit of the PhD or equivalent degree at an accredited university.
- Completion by April 15, 2022 of all requirements for the PhD degree except research and writing of the dissertation (the equivalent of ABD in the US system). A successful applicant, before being named a Fellow, must provide confirmation of ABD status (this must come from a university official who is not the dissertation supervisor).
- The application must be written in English by the applicant.
- There are no restrictions as to the location of work proposed, or the citizenship/residence of applicants.
- Work proposed must be in the humanities or related social sciences.

APPLICATION ELEMENTS

Applications must include:

- A completed application form submitted through the ACLS Online Fellowship and Grant Administration (OFA) System
- The proposal (no more than 5 double-spaced pages in Times New Roman 11-point font)
- Up to 3 additional pages of images, musical scores, or other similar supporting non-text materials [Optional]
- A bibliography (no more than 2 pages double-spaced between entries, Times New Roman 11-point font)
- Applicant’s statement (no more than 1 page, single or double-spaced, in Times New Roman 11-point font) describing the intellectual trajectory and experiences that brought the applicant to the current stage of academic career and that motivate plans for the future. ACLS is committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion in all aspects of the fellowship application process. Please use the personal statement to note any relevant information about your personal background and/or ways in which your proposed research addresses issues related to underrepresented minorities.
- Two reference letters submitted through the ACLS Online Fellowship and Grant Administration (OFA) System.
- An institutional Statement from the applicant’s institution (preferably from the applicant’s chair or dean), stating that the applicant will complete all requirements for the PhD except research and writing of the dissertation by April 15, 2022. The person submitting the institutional statement cannot be one of the reference-letter writers. The statement is to be submitted through the ACLS Online Fellowship and Grant Administration (OFA) System.
SELECTION CRITERIA

Proposals will be reviewed by an international panel of scholars in Buddhist studies according to the following criteria:

- Significance of the topic and its potential contribution to Buddhist studies
- Coherence and cogency of presentation
- Feasibility of the plan of work
- Potential of the applicant for a career that will make full use of Buddhist studies expertise.

Instructions

You may make as many visits to your application as you wish and revise any information in your application until it has been submitted. In order to be considered, your application must be complete and in SUBMITTED status at 9 pm, Eastern Standard Time, November 15, 2021. You should complete the REFERENCE LETTERS section as soon as possible. Your letter writers will have until November 22, 2021, to submit their letters.

This application consists of three parts: the application form itself, the uploaded proposal document (see PROPOSAL UPLOAD), and reference letters (see REFERENCE LETTERS).

BEFORE BEGINNING the application form, please read the Instructions regarding the PROPOSAL UPLOAD and the REFERENCE LETTERS, as well as the following technical instructions.

A. HOW TO SAVE AND SUBMIT YOUR DATA.

1. Do not use your browser's "BACK" or "FORWARD" buttons for navigation. Instead, use the menu on the left to navigate between screens or the "SAVE AND CONTINUE" button at the bottom of each screen to take you to the next application screen.

2. You must SAVE each time you leave a screen. If you do not click on SAVE, anything entered since you last hit SAVE on that screen will be lost. (Any work from a previous session will be retained, but any new entries will be lost.) The SAVE button is on the bottom of your screen.

3. You may work on your application in as many sessions as you wish, and the status of your application will be IN PROCESS until you submit it. Once you are satisfied that your application is complete, you must go to the SUBMIT APPLICATION screen and select SUBMIT APPLICATION. Once your application has been SUBMITTED, it cannot revert to IN PROCESS status.

4. When you have completed your application, pause to check it one last time. We strongly suggest that you print and read your application before submitting it, so that you can be sure there are no further revisions you wish to make. Your print copy should include your uploaded documents.

5. Your application status bar must show SUBMITTED at 9 pm, Eastern Standard Time, November 15, 2021 in order for it to be considered. ACLS will take no responsibility for applications that are not in SUBMITTED status at the deadline. Once your application has been SUBMITTED, even if it was submitted before the final deadline, no changes will be permitted.

6. We strongly urge you to print out and save a copy of the final version of your SUBMITTED application. Your print copy should include your uploaded documents. You can print your application until January 15, 2022.

B. HOW TO ENTER DATA.

1. You may begin completing the application at any section.

2. What you type into the form is exactly what will be seen by our reviewers. Therefore, please fill out the form carefully, paying attention to spelling, punctuation, and grammar. (For instance, do not use all caps.)

3. Text boxes will hold only a limited amount of text. Where longer answers are permitted, the number of available characters will normally be indicated. We suggest that you type rather than paste your response. If you paste your response, be sure your character count does not exceed the limit: excess text may appear on the screen but will not print and will not be visible to reviewers. Examine your print application to be sure your response is complete.
4. Dates should always be entered in the format mm/yyyy or mm/dd/yyyy where indicated. Where an entry continues into the present, please simply leave the ending date blank (mm/yyyy - [blank]).
5. Begin typing all answers at the extreme left hand side of the response area or box; do not leave a space or indent at the beginning of your answer.
6. In all dollar amount fields, use only digits. Please do not use the dollar sign or commas. Please list all amounts (salary, awards, budget requests) in US Dollars. Use the exchange rate at the time of the application.

C. HOW TO GET HELP.

1. If you have questions about the application process, please consult FAQ (http://www.acls.org/programs/fellowships-faq/buddhiststudies/). If your question is not answered there, click on the "OFA HELP" link that appears on the blue bar at the top of each screen to submit your query.
2. If you are unable to use the "OFA HELP" link that appears on the blue bar at the top of each screen (after this one), contact ofahelp@acls.org (mailto:ofahelp@acls.org) with questions. (Please use the "OFA HELP" link instead if possible.)

Good luck with your application!

Awards and Publications

Beginning with the most recent, list up to eight of the grants, fellowships, scholarships, academic honors, or awards you have received, giving in each case the dates, purposes (tuition, travel, expenses, etc.), and, if funded, the approximate amounts. If you are listing only selected awards, choose those that are most significant. Please do not be concerned if you cannot recall exact dates or amounts, and do not feel you must use all eight entries.

Please remember:

- use only numbers in the date fields, for example, 09/1995
- use the format mm/yyyy throughout
- where an entry continues into the present, leave the "To" field blank
- use only numbers in all dollar amount fields, for example, 1000

Reference Letter and Institutional Statement

PLEASE NOTE: You MUST ENTER on the Reference Letters Page THE NAMES OF YOUR REFEREES whom you are asking to provide Letters of Reference. Until you make these entries, they will not be able to log in to use the online reference-letter system. Please do not ask them to access the system until you have done this. Once you have entered the information and clicked the "send email" button, an email will be automatically generated with appropriate instructions to the referee.

Two letters of reference and one institutional statement are required.

1. REFERENCE LETTERS. We suggest that you secure as referees scholars competent to judge your record, the present research proposal, and the probable future contribution to the field. One of your referees should be your dissertation supervisor. (We do not accept letters from dossier services such as Interfolio.)

Referees are asked to comment on the applicant as a scholar and on the specific proposal to ACLS. They are also asked to evaluate the applicant's ability to conduct and complete the project proposed, as well as the importance of this project within the field of Buddhist studies and any of its specific traditions.

2. INSTITUTIONAL STATEMENT. In addition to two letters of reference, we require a statement from the applicant's department chair, dean, or other appropriate institutional representative.

The provided form asks the institutional representative to attest that the applicant will complete all requirements for the PhD except research and writing of the dissertation (the equivalent of ABD--All But Dissertation--status in the US system) by April 15, 2022.

The person submitting the institutional form cannot be one of the reference letter writers.

Letters of reference and the institutional statement must be submitted online. It is your responsibility to convey information about your proposal to your referees. After your referees have agreed to write on your behalf:

- Tell your referees to expect an email from ACLS.
- Make absolutely certain you have the correct email address for each referee.
- Enter each referee's name and email address by clicking on the "Add Referee" link at the bottom of this page. Please capitalize the name properly.
- Once you have entered the information and clicked the "send email" button, an email will be automatically generated with appropriate instructions to the referee.
- It is not necessary to enter all referees at the same time. You can return to this screen at any time to enter referees.

No more than two letters of reference and one institutional statement will be accepted.

- Enter only the required number of referees. It is possible to enter additional referees, but you should do this only if you learn that a referee is unable to complete the promised letter.

- The first two reference letters and the first institutional statement submitted will be the letters on file in support of your application. Once the maximum number has been submitted, another referee attempting to submit a letter for you will be prevented from doing so. Be careful not to put anyone in this situation.

If you learn that your referee did not receive an email with instructions, enter the information again using the "Add Referee" link below to have the email sent again. (However, if the referee has begun to write your letter in the system, you will not be able to enter the information again.)

Letters of reference and the institutional statement are due by November 22, 2021. It is your responsibility to check online to see whether letters have been submitted. The system will continue to accept letters after the deadline and will add them to your application at the earliest possible time, though we cannot guarantee that they will accompany your application through our entire review process.

You may wish to print this page so that you have this information after the application deadline. This page will not be included as part of your view/print application.

No recommenders entered. Click the "Add Recommender" button to request a letter.
Proposal Upload

To complete your application package, in addition to the application form, you must upload the following items: a proposal, additional materials [optional], and a project bibliography. Your proposal, additional materials, and project bibliography should be uploaded as one continuous document.

1A) PROPOSAL:

A concise statement describing your research project is required. The narrative statement should explain, briefly but specifically, what you plan to do and why, as well as describe progress already made. It should discuss the significance of this work within your specific and general fields. Please balance the description of specific work plans against an overview of your goals and the contribution this project will make to the field of Buddhist studies. Title your proposal in a brief, descriptive way and label sections of your narrative as appropriate to assist readers.

Applications for research fellowships should identify the research question(s), the sources to be investigated, criteria by which relevant information will be selected, the location of the project in the disciplinary literature, the methodology and approach to the subject matter, and tentative conclusions.

Applications for writing fellowships should state the main thesis or claim, review the sources investigated and secondary literature consulted, and indicate, if possible, an outline of chapters. The proposal should also state what materials have been collected, how research questions might have been answered or modified, and the direction that analysis will take once writing has begun.

ACLS selection committees understand the problem posed by timing - often, applications for writing are composed in the midst of fieldwork or archival research, at a time when all relevant materials have not yet been collected and the dissertation’s argument might be still inchoate. Applicants should address this problem directly in the application essay, describing as accurately as possible what they have managed to accomplish as of the application deadline and how they envision their dissertations taking shape during the period of the writing fellowship.

USEFUL GUIDELINES

The application essay should address all six points. The applicant might find it useful to label sections with the six headings, but this is not required.

1. Main Thesis: The principal argument or problem guiding the proposed research and writing.
2. Body: The research problem in more detail with a justification of the research focus and approach. What is already known about the problem and what more needs to be known?
3. Literature and sources: The proposed topic placed in the context of existing literature and potential new sources. What will be the criteria for determining which sources are relevant? How will the project extend, modify, or challenge existing scholarship?
4. Methods: A detailed description of the methods to be used. How will they be deployed to address the main thesis or argument of the project?
5. Significance: An explanation of the importance of the proposed work to central issues in Buddhist studies, to other disciplines, and to humanities scholarship in general.

6. Workplan: The concluding section of the essay should present a plan of work with a timeline for the research and/or writing during the fellowship period. How much has the applicant already accomplished on the project and how much remains to be done? What steps are anticipated during the fellowship period? What is the expected result? The workplan must specify the desired start and end dates for the fellowship period and must be able to be accomplished within 10 consecutive months.

The proposal must not exceed 5 double-spaced pages in Times New Roman 11-point font. You can, however, include up to an additional 3 pages of images, musical scores, or other similar supporting non-text materials.

1B) BIBLIOGRAPHY:

The bibliography should provide an overview of essential references for your project, and should balance the various sorts of key materials being used.

The bibliography must not exceed 2 pages, and should be double-spaced between entries, in Times New Roman 11-point font.

Documents must adhere to the page limits and formatting requirements to be reviewed.

1C) APPLICANT’S STATEMENT:

The applicant’s statement should describe the intellectual trajectory and experiences that brought you to the current stage of academic career and that motivate plans for the future. This statement might be used to provide information about you not conveyed elsewhere in this application.

ACLS is committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion in all aspects of the fellowship application process. Please use the personal statement to note any relevant information about your personal background and/or ways in which your proposed research addresses issues related to underrepresented minorities.

2) DOCUMENT SPECIFICATIONS:

- Items 1a, 1b, and 1c must be uploaded as one continuous document.
- Use Times New Roman 11-point font for all uploaded documents.
- There is a 3 MB limit on the size of your upload. This means that the combined size of the files uploaded, including any graphics or other supporting materials, cannot exceed 3 MB.
- Your application will be converted to Portable Document Format (.pdf). Keep formatting simple to avoid problems in the converted document.
- All documents must be in English, though citations can be in other languages (with translations provided).
- If your proposal includes foreign characters, please view it after uploading to be sure these characters convert properly. If not, you might have to first convert your document to .pdf and then upload again to resolve formatting problems.
- Use the header/footer function to number pages. (Do not type the numbers directly into each page of your document text.) You can number pages consecutively throughout the entire document, or you can number the different sections separately. (Page numbers are most helpful on the proposal, so you can omit them on the other items if you wish.)
- If you have difficulty with your uploads, consult the FAQ/technical support (/programs/faq/default.aspx#tech) before contacting OFA HELP.
3) INSTRUCTIONS FOR UPLOADING YOUR DOCUMENTS:

The proposal elements should be collated in this order—proposal, additional materials [optional], project bibliography, and applicant's statement—and uploaded as one file.

Files will be accepted in the following formats ONLY: Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx), Text only (.txt), or Adobe Portable Document Format (.pdf). Your file MUST include the appropriate extension (e.g., "\.doc"); if you are on a Mac, you will need to enter the extension as part of the file name.

The button below will allow you to upload your document. You will be able to browse your computer system to select the file to be uploaded. When you have completed the upload, your file name should appear under "FILE UPLOAD STATUS" below as a blue link. You can confirm that the file has uploaded successfully by clicking on the blue link and viewing your file. Sometimes the process takes a little time: if your file name does not appear as a blue link, refresh the screen using the refresh button in your browser tool bar, or simply leave this screen and come back to it.

As long as your application is still "In Process," you can upload revised versions of your document by simply repeating the upload process and selecting the new/revised version. (This can have the same file name or a new file name.) When you click on "Upload File" the revised version will be recorded and the old version erased.

After uploading, please check your file to be sure it has uploaded successfully.
