This position is only available through the Leading Edge Fellowship program. You may not contact the host institution to inquire about this position.
• Ensure tracking activities yield useful reports by working with staff Salesforce leads and potentially Salesforce developers
• Synthesize data to provide summaries of our impact for external audiences
• Work with the Executive Team to learn from pilots, and design and support systems of regularly applying learning to ongoing program development
• Work with external research partners that may include Learning for Action, Swayable, and independent consultants to ensure that collection methods, tools and reports align with the evaluation plan.

Qualifications:
• PhD in the humanities or humanistic social sciences. Read more about eligible fields here;
• Data analysis and/or evaluation experience;
• Project management skills and the ability to keep a project moving across a medium-sized organization with multiple departments, demonstrating initiative, sensitivity to feedback and sign offs, and strong follow through;
• Strong writing/storytelling abilities and the capacity to distill complex information for targeted audiences into case studies and/or reports;
• Cultural fluency: a track record working directly with or as part of institutions that serve BIPOC communities;
• A commitment to the organization’s values.

APPLICATIONS
• Information on the Leading Edge Fellowship Program: https://www.acls.org/Competitions-and-Deadlines/Leading-Edge-Fellowships
• All applications must be submitted through the ACLS Online Fellowship Application System (ofa.acls.org)
• Application deadline: 9pm EDT, May 6, 2021