Sample Application

What follows is a sample of an application for The Robert H. N. Ho Family Foundation Grants for Critical Editions and Scholarly Translations. It is for informational purposes only.

To apply for this grant, you must submit your application electronically, using the Online Fellowship Application (OFA) system.
Welcome to the online application for The Robert H. N. Ho Family Foundation Program in Buddhist Studies - Grants for Critical Editions and Scholarly Translations.

Critical editions are of crucial importance to the expanding field of Buddhist Studies. Translation has been at the core of Buddhism since the Buddha’s instruction to his monks to teach the dharma in many languages.

These grants support a broad range of endeavor, from the creation of critical editions (with full scholarly apparatus), to translation of canonical texts into modern vernaculars, to the translation of scholarly works on Buddhism from one modern language into another.

Collaborative projects will receive priority. Ideally, they will involve scholars who are native speakers of the relevant source and target languages, and/or scholars experienced in research and study in those languages.

Award funds can be used as stipends for work performed (e.g., to secure release time), for travel, and for related office costs, including reproduction or digitization of images, according to a proposed budget.

There are no restrictions as to the language of the final product prepared for publication.

Pending confirmation of funding, ACLS anticipates offering publication subventions to recipients of these grants who complete manuscripts. The subventions will be available through a separate competition to be announced at a later time.

ELIGIBILITY

- Individual applicants and leaders of collaborative teams must have PhD degrees conferred by an accredited university. Your PhD [including defense and revisions] must be completed by November 13, 2019, and conferred no later than May 31, 2020. (If the date of conferral is after the application deadline, the application must include an institutional statement attesting that all requirements for the PhD have been fulfilled. Successful applicants will be asked to submit proof of conferral before being named Grantees. (An established scholar who can demonstrate the equivalent of the PhD in publications and professional experience may also qualify.)

- The application must be written in English by the applicant.
- There are no restrictions as to residence or citizenship of applicants, or as to location of work.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Applications will be evaluated on the basis of

- Significance of the text to be edited or translated
- The potential contribution to Buddhist studies of the critical edition and/or translation, especially the potential benefit to scholarly communities using the target language

- Record of applicants’ accomplishment in scholarship and editing/translation

Instructions

You may make as many visits to your application as you wish, and revise any information in your application until it has been submitted. In order to be considered, your application must be complete and in SUBMITTED status at 9 pm, EASTERN STANDARD TIME, November 13, 2019. You must complete the REFERENCE LETTERS section by this time; your letter writers will have until November 20, 2019, to submit their letters.

This application consists of three parts: the application form itself, the uploaded documents (see PROPOSAL UPLOAD), and reference letters (see REFERENCE LETTERS).

BEFORE BEGINNING the application form, please read the Instructions regarding the PROPOSAL UPLOAD and the REFERENCE LETTERS, as well as the following technical instructions.

A. HOW TO SAVE AND SUBMIT YOUR DATA.

1. Do not use your browser’s "BACK" or "FORWARD" buttons for navigation. Instead, use the menu on the left to navigate between screens or the "SAVE AND CONTINUE" button at the bottom of each screen to take you to the next application screen.

2. You must SAVE each time you leave a screen. If you do not click on SAVE, anything entered since you last hit SAVE on that screen will be lost. (Any work from a previous session will be retained, but any new entries will be lost.) The SAVE button is on the bottom of your screen.

3. You may work on your application in as many sessions as you wish, and the status of your application will be IN PROCESS until you submit it. Once you are satisfied that your application is complete, you must go to the SUBMIT APPLICATION screen and select SUBMIT APPLICATION. Once your application has been SUBMITTED, it cannot revert to IN PROCESS status.

4. When you have completed your application, pause to check it one last time. We strongly suggest that you print and read your application before submitting it, so that you can be sure there are no further revisions you wish to make. Your print copy should include your uploaded document.

5. Your application status bar must show SUBMITTED at 9 pm, Eastern Standard Time, November 13, 2019, in order for it to be considered. ACLS will take no responsibility for applications that are not in SUBMITTED status at the deadline. Once your application has been SUBMITTED, even if it was submitted before the final deadline, no changes will be permitted.

6. We strongly urge you to print out and save a copy of the final version of your SUBMITTED application. Your print copy should include your uploaded document. You can print your application until January 15, 2020.

B. HOW TO ENTER DATA.

1. You may begin completing the application at any section.

2. What you type into the form is exactly what will be seen by our reviewers. Therefore, please fill out the form carefully, paying attention to spelling, punctuation, grammar, and case. (For instance, do not use all caps.)

3. Text boxes will hold only a limited amount of text. Where longer answers are permitted, the number of available characters will normally be indicated. We suggest that you type rather than paste your response. If you paste your response, be sure your character count does not exceed the limit: excess text may appear on the screen but will not print and will not be visible to reviewers. Examine your print application to be sure your response is complete.

4. Dates should always be entered in the format mm/yyyy or mm/dd/yyyy where indicated. Where an entry continues into the present, please simply leave the ending date blank (mm/yyyy - [blank]).

5. Begin typing all answers at the extreme left hand side of the response area or box; do not leave a space or indent at the beginning of your answer.

6. In all dollar amount fields, use only digits. Please do not use the dollar sign or commas. Please list all amounts (salary, awards, budget requests) in US Dollars. Use the exchange rate at the time of the application.

C. HOW TO GET HELP.

1. If you have questions about the application process, please consult FAQ (http://www.acls.org/programs/fellowships-faq/buddhiststudies/). If your question is not answered there, click on the "OFA HELP" link that appears on the blue bar at the top of each screen to submit your query.

2. If you are unable to use the "OFA HELP" link that appears on the blue bar at the top of each screen (after this one), contact ofahelp@acls.org (mailto:ofahelp@acls.org) with questions. (Please use the "OFA HELP" link instead if possible.)
Good luck with your application!
Technical Support FAQ

Q: My name does not appear correctly in the application form and/or my web browser seems to have autofilled the wrong field for my name. How do I fix it?
A: Within the application portal, click on “Account Information” in the left menu. You may edit your name, password, security question, etc.

Q: I started an application, but no longer wish to apply. How do I cancel my application?
A: If you have not submitted your application, there is nothing further you need to do. If you entered referees, please let them know to ignore the email with instructions to upload their letters. If you submitted your application already, email ofahelp@acls.org and a staff person will make sure that your application is not processed.

Q: Are the page-limit requirements for uploaded documents strictly enforced? Will my application be considered if I exceed the page limits?
A: We are strict about the page limits for all uploaded documents. Documents must adhere to the page limits and formatting requirements to be reviewed. You should therefore be sure to check that your uploaded document(s) does not exceed the limits and edit as necessary.

Q: My proposal document looked fine on my computer, but after I uploaded it all the formatting has changed and made it difficult to read. Why did this happen and how can I fix it? Will this affect the review of my application?
A: Our system converts your uploaded document to Adobe™ Portable Document Format (PDF). Slight variations in formatting are a by-product of the conversion process. Our reviewers are aware of this, and slight irregularities will not affect the review of your application. To avoid problems in the conversion process, you should use simple formatting insofar as possible. You can check your original document as follows:
• Using the "show formatting" function in your document editing software, look for formatting that might have created problems, such as hard returns at the end of each line, text included in tables, diacritical marks, footnotes or endnotes, unnecessary page or section breaks, etc.
• Delete unnecessary formatting and try uploading your document again. If you continue to have problems and feel that your document is difficult to read, contact ofahelp@acls.org
Q: My proposal includes non-English language characters. Will the system support these?

A: The PDF conversion software used by ACLS does not support all non-English language characters. If your proposal includes such characters, please view the PDF after uploading to be sure the characters appear properly. You can convert your document to PDF and upload again if you have access to Adobe Acrobat™ (the PDF-creation software, not Acrobat Reader™) or any other conversion software which better supports non-English language characters.

Q: There is some formatting that I feel is essential to my proposal (for example, diacritical marks or footnotes) but that seems to cause problems in the converted document. What can I do?

A: If you are unable to resolve the formatting problems, try converting your document to PDF and uploading it again. (See above.)

Q: I added page numbers to my proposal document, but when I view the uploaded document the formatting has changed.

A: We recommend that you use the "header/footer" function for page numbering. If you have tried this and the formatting still does not work, you may omit page numbering.

Q: I uploaded my narrative statement, bibliography, and publications list onto the application form, but when I went to print out my application, only my bibliography showed up on the PDF document. Did the other documents ever get uploaded, or do I need to try again?

A: For most applications the components of your upload (proposal, bibliography, publications list, etc.) should be collated to upload as one continuous document. If you try to upload separate documents, each will replace the one previously uploaded. Please combine the separate documents into one document, and then upload again. Note, however, that some programs require more than one upload, so be sure to read each program's instructions carefully.

Q: I uploaded the file of my project proposal yesterday but the website is not showing that it has been successfully uploaded. The following message is displayed on the screen: FILE BEING PROCESSED. Should I try to upload it again?

A: First try refreshing the page. If your document has been uploaded, the file name should appear under "FILE UPLOADED" as a link in red. You can confirm that the file has uploaded successfully by clicking on that red link and viewing your file. If the link does not appear in red, then try uploading your document again. If it fails to upload the second time, our system may be having difficulty converting your document. Contact ofahelp@acls.org (mailto:ofahelp@acls.org) and attach a copy of your document; if necessary, we will manually convert it for you.

Q: I would like to upload a new version of my proposal and delete the old one. Can I do that?

A: As long as your application remains "In Process," you may upload new/revised versions of documents simply by repeating the upload process and selecting the document you wish to upload. (It does not matter if it has the same or a different file name.) When you click "Upload File," the new document version will be uploaded and the old version will be erased.

Q: I cannot print my application. When I click the View/Print Application button, the PDF document comes up on the screen, but when I try to print it I get a message saying it cannot print.
A: There may be an issue with the computer you are using. Please try another computer or make sure that you have the latest version of Adobe Acrobat Reader™ or other PDF-viewing software/browser plug-ins installed. (This software is required for viewing PDF files and is available free of charge.)

Q: I submitted my application unintentionally and/or wish to go back and correct or add to what I entered, but the system will not let me. What do I do?
A: As long as the application deadline has not yet passed, you mail email ofahelp@acls.org (mailto:ofahelp@acls.org) and a staff person will be able to “un-submit” your application so you can continue to work on it. Please do not forget to submit it (again) when you are done.

Reference Letters

PLEASE NOTE: You MUST ENTER YOUR REFEREES on the Reference Letters page BEFORE they can log in to use the online references system. Please do not ask them to access the system until you have done this. Once you have entered the information and clicked the "send email" button, an email will be automatically generated with appropriate instructions to the referee and to your proposed host.

Three letters of reference are required. Referees should be scholars knowledgeable about your professional and/or academic experience, expert in the subject matter, and able to judge your work objectively. At least one of the referees should be from outside of your home institution. These reference reports are confidential, for the use of review and selection panels only, and will not be made available to the applicant. (We do not accept letters from dossier services such as Interfolio.)

Letters of reference must be submitted online. It is your responsibility to convey information about your proposal to your referees. After your referees have agreed to write on your behalf:

- Tell your referees to expect an email from ACLS.
- Make absolutely certain you have the correct email address for each referee.
- Enter each referee's name and email address by clicking on the "Add Referee" link at the bottom of this page. Please capitalize the name properly.
- Once you have entered the information and clicked the "send email" button, an email will be automatically generated with appropriate instructions to the referee.
- It is not necessary to enter all referees at the same time. You can return to this screen at any time to enter referees.

No more than three letters of reference will be accepted.

- Enter only three referees. It is possible to enter additional referees, but you should do this only if you learn that a referee is unable to complete the promised letter.
The first three reference letters submitted will be the letters on file in support of your application. Once three reference letters have been submitted, another referee attempting to submit a letter for you will be prevented from doing so. Be careful not to put anyone in this situation.

If you learn that your referee did not receive an email with instructions, enter the information again using the "Add Referee" link below to have the email sent again. (You will not be able to enter the information again, however, if the referee has begun your letter.)

For your information, the online reference process requests referees to comment on the applicant as a scholar and professional and on the specific proposal to ACLS. Referees are asked to evaluate the scholar's ability to conduct and complete the project proposed, as well as the importance of this project within the general and specific field(s) to which it relates.

Institutional Statement (required only for applicants whose PhD degree will be conferred after the application deadline). The provided form asks the institutional representative (the applicant's department chair, dean, or another appropriate institutional representative) to confirm that the applicant will have completed all requirements for the PhD, including defense and revisions, by November 13, 2019 and that the PhD degree will be conferred by May 31, 2020.

Letters of reference and the institutional statement are due by November 20, 2019. It is your responsibility to check online to see whether letters have been submitted.

The system will continue to accept reference letters and the institutional statement after the deadline and will add them to your application at the earliest possible time, though we cannot guarantee that they will accompany your application through our entire review process.

You might wish to print this page so that you have this information after the application deadline. This page will not be included as part of your view/print application.

No recommenders entered. Click the "Add Recommender" button to request a letter.
Add a Recommender

Please verify your referee's email address before proceeding. Once you have entered the information and clicked the “send email” button, an email will be automatically generated with appropriate instructions to the referee. Do not enter this information until you have communicated with your referee, have verified the email address, and are ready to send the email to your referee.

Proposal Upload

To complete your application package, in addition to the application form, you must upload the following items: a proposal, a project bibliography, a sample of the text(s) proposed for the critical edition or translation, a budget statement, and a publications list. The proposal, project bibliography, sample text(s), budget, and publications list must be uploaded as one continuous file.

1. A) PROPOSAL

Please give your proposal a brief, descriptive title, and label sections of your narrative as appropriate to assist readers.

The proposal will be the basis of the evaluation of the project. It must include all of the following:

- a full statement addressing the relevance of the project to the broader issues in your discipline as well as to the field of Buddhist studies
- the intended contribution of the critical edition or scholarly translation to existing literature in your discipline
- a rationale for the length of time requested
- specification of the identity and location of sources at archives, libraries, or geographical sites, as well as of Buddhist studies colleagues relevant to your project
- For collaborative projects: A clear plan for collaboration on the jointly prepared scholarly product is required. The narrative statement should explain, briefly but with all relevant detail, what you plan to do and why. You should describe progress already made. Your statement should also make clear the relevance of the project to the professional experience of all participants, and discuss the significance of this work within their specific and general fields. The proposal should explain in detail the process and product of the collaboration. It should make clear the goal of the collaboration, its structure, how credit and acknowledgement will be determined. Finally, the proposal should explain how collaboration will produce a final outcome more valuable than the sum of individual efforts.

The proposal must not exceed 5 double-spaced pages in Times New Roman 11-point font. You can, however, include up to 2 additional pages of images, musical scores, or other similar supporting non-text materials.

B) PROJECT BIBLIOGRAPHY

The bibliography should provide an overview of essential references for your project, and should balance the various sorts of key materials being used.

The bibliography must not exceed 2 pages in Times New Roman 11-point font, and should be double-spaced between entries.

C) SAMPLE TEXT(S)

Please provide at least one text, in the original and in your edition/translation, that you (and your team, if applicable) have edited/translated. If you have already started the project proposed here, please provide a text included in your current work. If not, please upload a sample from your recent work.

The original text(s) may be in the original format. The prepared text(s) (edition/translation) should be no more than 10 pages, double-spaced, in Times New Roman 11-point font.

D) BUDGET STATEMENT

The budget statement should indicate salary replacement, costs of travel, research materials, research assistants, etc. (No indirect costs or institutional overhead is permitted).

E) PUBLICATIONS LIST

Publications resulting from previous research are an important factor in evaluating proposals from applicants. (Applicants who have previously conducted research supported by ACLS fellowships should report all publications resulting from that research.)

The publications list should be no more than 2 pages in Times New Roman 11-point font, and should be double-spaced between entries.

In order to be reviewed, documents must adhere to the specified page limits and formatting.

2) FOR COLLABORATIVE PROJECTS:
A brief description of the collaborative team: it should list all the collaborators who will work on the project (including the applicant) and their affiliations; brief statements about each team member's proposed contribution to the project; and any additional information about the team not listed elsewhere in this application.

CVs of all collaborators (not required from team leader/applicant) (no formatting restrictions)

In order to be reviewed, documents must adhere to the specified page limits and formatting.

3) DOCUMENT SPECIFICATIONS:

- Items a, b, c, d and e must be uploaded as one continuous document. For collaborative Projects: items under 2) must be collated and uploaded as one continuous document.
- Margins must be at least one inch on all sides.
- Use Times New Roman 11-point font for all uploaded documents.
- There is a 3 MB limit on the size of your upload. This means that the combined size of the two files uploaded, including any graphics or supplementary materials, cannot exceed 3 MB.
- Your application will be converted to Portable Document Format (.pdf). Keep formatting simple to avoid problems in the converted document.
- If your proposal includes foreign characters, please view it after uploading to be sure these characters convert properly. If not, you might have to convert your document to .pdf and upload again to resolve formatting problems.
- Use the header/footer function to number pages. (Do not type the numbers directly into each page of your document text.) You can number pages consecutively throughout the entire document, or you can number the different sections separately. (Page numbers are most helpful on the proposal, so you can omit them on the other items if you wish.)
- Please adhere to the word-count and page limits listed above. Note: The .pdf conversion process can cause some slight formatting changes. If your converted document exceeds the limit only slightly (but your original document did not), please do not be concerned.
- If you have difficulty with your upload, consult the FAQ/technical support (/programs/faq/default.aspx#tech) before contacting OFA HELP.

4) INSTRUCTIONS FOR UPLOADING YOUR DOCUMENTS:

Your items should be collated in this order—proposal, project bibliography, sample text(s), budget statement, and publications list—and submitted as one file. For collaborative Projects: items under 2) must be collated and uploaded as one continuous document.
Files will be accepted in the following formats ONLY: Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx), Text only (.txt), or Adobe Portable Document Format (.pdf). Your file MUST include the appropriate extension (e.g., ".doc"); if you are on a Mac, you will need to enter the extension as part of the file name.

The button below will allow you to upload your documents. You will be able to browse your computer system to select the file to be uploaded. When you have completed the upload, your file name should appear under "FILE UPLOAD STATUS" below as a blue link. You can confirm that the file has uploaded successfully by clicking on the blue link and viewing your file. Sometimes the process takes a little time: if your file name does not appear as a blue link, refresh the screen using the refresh button in your browser tool bar, or simply leave this screen and come back to it.

As long as your application is still "In Process," you can upload revised versions of your documents by simply repeating the upload process and selecting the new/revised version. (This can have the same file name or a new file name.) When you click on "Upload Document" the revised version will be recorded and the old version erased.

After uploading, please check your files to be sure they have uploaded successfully.
