Early Career Research Fellowships in Buddhist Studies

Program Description

The Robert H. N. Ho Family Foundation Early Career Research Fellowships in Buddhist Studies offer support for research and writing in Buddhist Studies for pre-tenure scholars holding a PhD degree, with priority given to those teaching full-time. These fellowships provide scholars time free from teaching and other responsibilities to concentrate on research and writing for the project proposed.

Priority will be given to unemployed or underemployed scholars – emeriti are not eligible. The fellowship period may last up to nine months, during which time no teaching, commissioned research on other topics, or administrative duties are allowed. Applicants may request a waiver of this requirement if their institutions do not provide leave. The fellowship may be separated into two periods, each of which must be a minimum of three months. If the duration is less than nine months (minimum of six months), the stipend will be prorated.

There are no restrictions as to the location of the work conducted. Each applicant must identify a significant scholarly product (monograph, series of journal articles, translation, etc.) that will result from the fellowship. At the end of the fellowship tenure, a final report will be due describing progress made. Fellows will be asked to report to ACLS any publications based on their fellowship work, once they are published.

When accepting a stipend, fellows must confirm being officially released from teaching, commissioned research, administrative duties, or other employment during the entire fellowship period.

An Early Career Research Fellowship may be held concurrently with other fellowships and grants and with sabbatical pay.

Tenure of the fellowship may begin no earlier than July 1, 2024, and must conclude by June 30, 2026.

The Robert H. N. Ho Family Foundation Program in Buddhist Studies, administered by ACLS, is committed to inclusion, equity, and diversity as integral components of merit that enhance the scholarly enterprise. It is a priority of this program that cohorts of fellows and grantees be broadly inclusive of different backgrounds, cultures, and any aspects that make one unique. In Buddhist Studies we seek balance in regard to citizenship and university affiliation, as well as in languages, topics, Buddhist traditions, and locations of research.

FELLOWSHIP DETAILS

- Stipend: Up to $70,000, to provide release from other duties for devoting full time to the proposed project. The exact stipend will be calculated based on a fellow's current academic salary and other fellowships, grants, and sabbatical salary to be received during fellowship tenure. There is no additional financial support for dependents.
- Tenure: Fellowship period must begin after July 1, 2024, and must end by June 30, 2026. The tenure may last up to nine months (minimum 6 months) and may be divided into two periods, each of which must be a minimum of three months.
- No university overhead is permitted.
- All topics, periods, and approaches in Buddhist Studies are welcome. This is a global competition. There are no restrictions as to the location of the university that has granted the PhD degree or the university of - current employment, or to the citizenship of the applicant.

- Applications must be submitted through the ACLS Online Fellowship and Grant Administration (OFA) System (https://ofa.acls.org) no later than 9:00 PM Eastern Standard Time on November 30, 2023.

ELIGIBILITY

- Applicants must have a PhD degree conferred (officially awarded) by an accredited university. An established scholar who can demonstrate the equivalent of the PhD in publications and professional experience may also qualify.
 - 1. An applicant must hold a PhD degree conferred no earlier than January 1, 2018.
 - 2. If the PhD is not conferred (officially awarded) by the application deadline, the applicant must submit:
 - (At the time of application) an institutional statement signed by a university official (dissertation advisor or departmental chair) confirming that the applicant is on schedule to complete the PhD by May 31, 2024.
 - (By May 31, 2024) a letter from the applicant's graduate school confirming that the dissertation has been submitted and approved by the graduate school for conferral according to the university calendar. The applicant is responsible for submitting the dissertation on time in order to meet this requirement. The applicant should request that the graduate school send the letter to ACLS at BuddhistStudies@acls.org.
- Applicants who have obtained tenure, or who have submitted tenure materials for review by the application deadline are not eligible.
- A scholarly product must be proposed. It may be written in any language.
- The application must be written in English by the applicant.
- There are no restrictions as to the location of work proposed or the citizenship/residence of applicants.

APPLICATION GUIDELINES

Applications must include:

- A completed application form.
- Application essay (no more than five double-spaced pages in Arial or Helvetica 11-point font).
- An optional one to two additional pages of images, musical scores, or other similar supporting non-text materials.
- Bibliography (no more than two pages double-spaced in Arial or Helvetica 11-point font).
- Applicant's statement describing the intellectual trajectory and experiences that brought the applicant to the current stage of academic career and that motivate plans for the future (no more than one page singleor double-spaced in Arial or Helvetica 11-point font). ACLS is committed to inclusion, equity, and diversity as integral components of merit that enhance the scholarly enterprise. It is a priority of this program that cohorts of fellows and grantees be broadly inclusive of different backgrounds, cultures, and any aspects that make one unique. In Buddhist Studies we seek balance in regard to citizenship and university affiliation, as well as in languages, topics, Buddhist traditions, and locations of research. Please use the applicant's statement to note any relevant information about your personal background and/or ways in which your proposed research addresses issues related to inclusion, equity, and diversity.
- List of the applicant's publications (no more than two pages double-spaced in Arial or Helvetica 11-point font).

Required only for applicants whose PhD will be conferred (officially awarded) after the application deadline:

- (At the time of application) an institutional statement signed by a university official (dissertation advisor or departmental chair) confirming that the applicant is on schedule to complete the PhD by May 31, 2024.
- (By May 31, 2024) a letter from the applicant's graduate school confirming that the dissertation has been submitted and approved by the graduate school for conferral according to the university calendar. The applicant is responsible for submitting the dissertation on time in order to meet this requirement. The applicant should request that the graduate school send the letter to ACLS at BuddhistStudies@acls.org (mailto:BuddhistStudies@acls.org).

EVALUATION CRITERIA

Applications will be reviewed by an international panel of scholars in Buddhist Studies according to the following criteria:

- Significance of the topic and its potential contribution to Buddhist Studies.
- Coherence and cogency of presentation.
- Feasibility of the plan of work.
- Record of the applicant's previous accomplishments.
- Applicants seeking support for a project that has previously been funded through the Early Career Research Fellowships program should articulate clearly what is different about the new application. Ex. If applying for an Early Career Fellowship to convert into a book a dissertation that was previously supported by this program, the extent of the revisions should be clearly explained.

Instructions

Instructions

You may make as many visits to your application as you wish, and revise any information in your application until it has been submitted. In order to be considered, your application must be complete and in SUBMITTED status at 9:00 PM Eastern Standard Time on November 30, 2023. If relevant, you must complete the INSTITUTIONAL STATEMENT section by this time; your university official will have until December 7, 2023, to submit the institutional statement.

This application consists of three parts: the application form itself, the uploaded documents (see PROPOSAL UPLOAD), and institutional statement (see INSTITUTIONAL STATEMENT).

BEFORE BEGINNING the application form, please read the instructions regarding the PROPOSAL UPLOAD and the INSTITUTIONAL STATEMENT, as well as the following technical instructions.

A. HOW TO SAVE AND SUBMIT YOUR DATA.

- 1. Do not use your browser's "BACK" or "FORWARD" buttons for navigation. Instead, use the menu on the left to navigate between screens or the "SAVE AND CONTINUE" button at the bottom of each screen to take you to the next application screen.
- 2. You must SAVE each time you leave a screen. If you do not click on SAVE, anything entered since you last hit SAVE on that screen will be lost. (Any work from a previous session will be retained, but any new entries will be lost.) The SAVE button is on the bottom of your screen.
- 3. You may work on your application in as many sessions as you wish, and the status of your application will be IN PROCESS until you submit it. Once you are satisfied that your application is complete, you must go to the SUBMIT APPLICATION screen and select SUBMIT APPLICATION. Once your application has been SUBMITTED, it cannot revert to IN PROCESS status.
- 4. When you have completed your application, pause to check it one last time. We strongly suggest that you print and read your application before submitting it, so that you can be sure there are no further revisions you wish to make. Your print copy should include your uploaded document.
- 5. Your application status bar must show SUBMITTED at 9:00 PM, Eastern Standard Time on November 16, 2023, in order for it to be considered. ACLS will take no responsibility for applications that are not in SUBMITTED status at the deadline. Once your application has been SUBMITTED, even if it was submitted before the final deadline, no changes will be permitted.
- 6. We strongly urge you to print out and save a copy of the final version of your SUBMITTED application. Your print copy should include your uploaded documents. You can print your application until January 15, 2024.

B. HOW TO ENTER DATA.

- 1. You may begin completing the application at any section.
- 2. What you type into the form is exactly what will be seen by our reviewers. Therefore, please fill out the form carefully, paying attention to spelling, punctuation, and grammar. (For instance, do not use all caps.)
- 3. Text boxes will hold only a limited amount of text. Where longer answers are permitted, the number of available characters will normally be indicated. We suggest that you type rather than paste your response.

- If you paste your response, be sure your character count does not exceed the limit: excess text may appear on the screen but will not print and will not be visible to reviewers. Examine your print application to be sure your response is complete.
- 4. Dates should always be entered in the format mm/yyyy or mm/dd/yyyy where indicated. Where an entry continues into the present, please simply leave the ending date blank (mm/yyyy - [blank]).
- 5. Begin typing all answers at the extreme left hand side of the response area or box; do not leave a space or indent at the beginning of your answer.
- 6. In all dollar amount fields, use only digits. Please do not use the dollar sign or commas.

C. HOW TO GET HELP.

- 1. If you have questions about the application process, please consult FAQ (https://www.acls.org/faqs/faq-therobert-h-n-ho-family-foundation-program-in-buddhist-studies/). If your question is not answered there, click on the "OFA HELP" link that appears on the blue bar at the top of each screen to submit your query.
- 2. If you are unable to use the "OFA HELP" link that appears on the blue bar at the top of each screen (after this one), contact ofahelp@acls.org (mailto:ofahelp@acls.org) with questions. (Please use the "OFA HELP" link instead if possible.)

Good luck with your application!

Institutional Statement

Institutional Statement

Institutional Statement (required only for applicants whose PhD degree will be conferred after the application deadline). Your institutional representative (dissertation advisor or departmental chair) will be asked to confirm that you are on schedule to complete all requirements for the PhD, including submission and approval of the dissertation, by May 31, 2024.

PLEASE NOTE: You must enter your institutional representative on the Institutional Statement page BEFORE they can log in to use the online references system. Please do not ask them to access the system until you have done this. Once you have entered the information and clicked the "send email" button, an email will be automatically generated with appropriate instructions to the institutional representative.

The institutional statement must be submitted online. It is your responsibility to convey information about your proposal to your institutional representative. After your institutional representative has agreed to write on your behalf:

- Tell your institutional representative to expect an email from ACLS.
- Make absolutely certain you have the correct email address for your institutional representative.
- Enter the institutional representative's name and email address by clicking on the "Add Recommender" button at the bottom of this page. Please capitalize the name properly.
- Once you have entered the information and clicked the "send email" button, an email will be automatically generated with appropriate instructions to the institutional representative.
- You can return to this screen at any time to enter an institutional representative.

No more than one institutional statement will be accepted.

- Enter only one institutional representative. It is possible to enter additional institutional representatives, but you should do this only if you learn that an institutional representative is unable to complete the promised institutional statement.
- The first institutional statement submitted will be the statement on file in support of your application. Once one statement has been submitted, another institutional representative attempting to submit a statement for you will be prevented from doing so. Be careful not to put anyone in this situation.

If you learn that your institutional representative did not receive an email with instructions, enter the information again using the "Add Recommender" button below to have the email sent again. You will not be able to enter the information again, however, if the institutional representative has begun your statement.

The institutional statement is due by December 7, 2023. It is your responsibility to check online to see whether a statement has been submitted. The system will continue to accept statements after the deadline and will add them to your application at the earliest possible time, though we cannot guarantee that they will accompany your application through our entire review process.

You may wish to print this page so that you have this information after the application deadline. This page will not be included as part of your view/print application.

No recommenders entered. Click the "Add Recommender" button to request a letter.

Proposal Upload

Proposal Upload

To complete your application package, in addition to the application form, you must upload the following items: an application essay, optional additional materials, a bibliography, an applicant's statement, and a list of publications. Your application essay, optional additional materials, bibliography, applicant's statement, and list of publications should be uploaded as one continuous document in this order. In order to be reviewed, documents must adhere to the specified page limits and formatting.

1. A) APPLICATION ESSAY

The application essay will be the basis of the evaluation of the project. It must include all of the following:

- A full statement addressing the relevance of the project to the broader issues in your discipline as well as to the field of Buddhist Studies.
- The intended contribution of the writing or research to existing literature in your discipline.
- A description of the results expected.
- A rationale for the length of time requested. It is important to specify the identity and location of sources at archives, libraries, or geographical sites and Buddhist Studies colleagues relevant to your project.

USEFUL GUIDELINES

The application essay should address all six points. The applicant might find it useful to label sections with the six headings, but this is not required.

- 1. Main Thesis: The principal argument or problem guiding the proposed research and writing.
- 2. Body: The research problem in more detail with a justification of the research focus and approach. What is already known about the problem and what more needs to be known?
- 3. Literature and sources: The proposed topic placed in the context of existing literature and potential new sources. What will be the criteria for determining which sources are relevant? How will the project extend, modify, or challenge existing scholarship?
- 4. Methods: A detailed description of the methods to be used. How will they be deployed to address the main thesis or argument of the project?
- 5. Significance: An explanation of the importance of the proposed work to central issues in Buddhist Studies, to other disciplines, and to humanities scholarship in general.
- 6. Work plan: The concluding section of the essay should present a plan of work with a timeline for the research and/or writing during the fellowship period. How much has the applicant already accomplished on the project and how much remains to be done? What steps are anticipated during the fellowship period? What is the expected result? The work plan must specify the desired start and end dates for the fellowship period and must be able to be accomplished within the fellowship tenure.

The application essay must not exceed five double-spaced pages in Arial or Helvetica 11-point font.

B) OPTIONAL ADDITIONAL MATERIALS

Applicants may submit images, musical scores, or other similar supporting non-text materials.

The additional materials must not exceed one to two pages.

C) BIBLIOGRAPHY

The bibliography should provide an overview of essential references for your project, and it should balance the various sorts of key materials being used.

The bibliography must not exceed two pages double-spaced in Arial or Helvetica 11-point font.

D) APPLICANT'S STATEMENT

The applicant's statement should describe the intellectual trajectory and experiences that brought you to the current stage of academic career and that motivate plans for the future.

ACLS is committed to inclusion, equity, and diversity as integral components of merit that enhance the scholarly enterprise. It is a priority of this program that cohorts of fellows and grantees be broadly inclusive of different backgrounds, cultures, and any aspects that make one unique. In Buddhist Studies we seek balance in regard to citizenship and university affiliation, as well as in languages, topics, Buddhist traditions, and locations of research. Please use the applicant's statement to note any relevant information about your personal background and/or ways in which your proposed research addresses issues related to inclusion, equity, and diversity.

The applicant's statement must not exceed one single- or double-spaced page in Arial or Helvetica 11-point font.

E) PUBLICATIONS LIST

Publications resulting from previous research are an important factor in evaluating proposals from applicants. Applicants who have previously conducted research supported by ACLS fellowships should report all publications resulting from that research.

The publications list must not exceed two double-spaced pages in Arial or Helvetica 11-point font).

2) DOCUMENT SPECIFICATIONS:

- Items A, B, C, D, and E must be uploaded as one continuous document.
- Margins must be at least one inch on all sides.
- Use Arial or Helvetica 11-point font for all uploaded documents.
- There is a 3 MB limit on the size of your upload.
- Your application will be converted to Portable Document Format (.pdf). Keep formatting simple to avoid problems in the converted document.
- If your proposal includes non-Roman characters, please view it after uploading to be sure these characters convert properly. If not, you may have to convert your document to .pdf and upload again to resolve formatting problems.

- Use the header/footer function to number pages. Do not type the numbers directly into each page of your document text. You may number pages consecutively throughout the entire document, or you may number the different sections separately. Page numbers are most helpful on the proposal, so you may omit them on the other items if you wish.
- Please adhere to the word-count and page limits listed above. Note: The .pdf conversion process can cause some slight formatting changes. If your converted document exceeds the limit only slightly (but your original document did not), please do not be concerned.
- If you have difficulty with your upload, consult the FAQ/technical support (/programs/faq/default.aspx#tech) before contacting OFA HELP.

3) INSTRUCTIONS FOR UPLOADING YOUR DOCUMENTS:

Your items should be collated in this order—application essay, optional additional materials, bibliography, applicant's statement, and list of publications—and submitted as one file.

Files will be accepted in the following formats ONLY:

Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx), Text only (.txt), or Adobe Portable Document Format (.pdf). Your file MUST include the appropriate extension (e.g., ".doc"); if you are on a Mac, you will need to enter the extension as part of the file name.

The buttons below will allow you to upload your documents. You will be able to browse your computer system to select the file to be uploaded. When you have completed the upload, your file name should appear under "FILE UPLOAD STATUS" below as a blue link. You can confirm that the file has uploaded successfully by clicking on the blue link and viewing your file. Sometimes the process takes a little time: if your file name does not appear as a blue link, refresh the screen using the refresh button in your browser tool bar, or simply leave this screen and come back to it.

As long as your application is still "In Process," you can upload revised versions of your document by simply repeating the upload process and selecting the new/revised version. (This may have the same file name or a new file name.) When you click on "Upload Document" the revised version will be recorded and the old version erased.

After uploading, please check your file to be sure it has uploaded successfully.
